7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe at least two institutional best practices

SAVE ELECTRICITY campaigns are conducted throughout the academic year. Student volunteers of Nahar College have put up posters near the switch boards of classrooms urging users to switch off lights and fans on their way out. USE OF LED LIGHTING: In a concerted move, traditional lights which consume a greater amount for power have been substituted by LED'S in the library and all corridors of the old block. Dedicated work by the volunteers has ensured that students themselves switch off lights and fans when they move out of rooms, establishing a culture of energy conservation. E-waste: Obsolete computers and accessories are disposed of by auctioning to government approved ewaste recyclers. Student volunteers occasionally collect mobile phones and accessories which students wish to discard so that can be handed over to authorized firms for correct disposal. Plastic waste: A continuous campaign is carried out by the Environment Society and NSS volunteers for reduction of plastic waste by requesting people to carry their water bottle and avoid use of plastic cups, spoons and straws. Promoting Innovation in Teaching-Learning: As extolled in its mission statement, the college aims to achieve and sustain excellence in teaching with a vision of becoming an institution of excellence, it is imperative that the teaching-learning process in the college be aligned to the best practices in the academia. 1. Institutionalize goal driven teaching learning processes that aim at creation of knowledgeable, employable and socially responsible citizens. 2. Develop well-defined paradigms for teaching-learning processes. 3. Augment the teaching-learning process with information technology.
